DETAILED ACTION

Priority

Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority under 35

U.S.C. 119(a)-(d). The certified copy has been filed in parent Application No.

09/843962, filed on 4/27/2001.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 10-12 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-7 of U.S. Patent No. 7161616 (Okamoto hereafter Ok) in view of Kudo (20010012059).

In regard to claims 10 and 12, claims 1 and 7 of Okamoto discloses an apparatus that includes an image processor that stores a mapping table or plurality of image synthesis parameter groups that represent a correspondence between camera images and a synthesized image, and a parameter selection that cuts out a mapping table from an original mapping table, or selects one among a plurality of sets of image synthesis parameter groups.

Claims 2-6 further disclose selecting parameter groups on the basis of vehicle motion, vehicle status and the presence of an obstacle in the vehicle surroundings.

It is noted that Ok does not disclose details of filtering. However, Kudo discloses an image pickup device with adaptive filtering that includes selecting filter parameters, and applying filtering based on detected motion (Kudo Figs 3 and 6 and pars 86-113 note pars. 94-98 for parameter selection). It is therefore considered obvious that one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention would have recognized the advantage of including motion based adaptive filtering as taught by Kudo in the invention described in claims 1-7 of Ok in order correct for image blur in the presence of movement as suggested by Kudo (Kudo pars. 110-111).

In regard to claim 11 refer to the statements made in the rejection of claim 10 above. Kudo discloses frequency filtering (Kudo par. 86 note high pass filter) and setting filter parameters (Kudo pars. 94-98). Frequency filtering will, inherently, affect each pixel position of the image.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Kumata discloses a vehicular imaging system capable of displaying individual and/or panoramic images.
